Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006 (REACH)

Ladies and Gentlemen,

According to the Regulation 1907/2006 "REACH" and in particular the obligations resulting from Article 33 we herewith declare based on our supplier statements that none of the substances of very high concern (SVHC) published by the European Chemical Agency [ECHA] is present in our products above their respective thresholds.

All Weidmüller suppliers are informed about the REACH requirements and hence arising legal duties. If new SVHC are promulgated by the ECHA, or new materials or products are included in our portfolio declaration duties resulting from Article 33 can potentially apply. As soon as our suppliers report the presents of any SVHC in purchased goods and if the total amount of one SVHC exceeds the threshold of 0.1 % w/w in our products we will publishing these information on a day-to-day basin on our designated webpage to enable our customers the fastest data exchange.

Further information on products related environmental issues are available under <http://green-compliance.weidmueller.com>

This information and our technical advice – whether verbal, in writing or by way of trials – are given in good faith and to this best of our knowledge but without liability and warranty, unless the liability or warranty is admitted by law. This also applies where proprietary rights of third parties are involved. Our advice does not release you from the obligation to check its validity and to test our products as to their suitability for the intended processes and applications. From REACH Article 33 is none obligation arising which requires to inform about the absence of any SVHC as required in a growing number of inquiries.

Weidmüller is focused on the compliance of legal requirements resulting from REACH. The providing of data for all individual customer specific needs in this particular field will yield in an unnecessary data exchange which cannot be handled cost-effective for all effected supply chain members!

We kindly ask for your understanding that we will answer questionnaires etc. with this letter and the information provided by the Weidmüller REACH info centre.
